

The Eraserheads

Chat Transcript

The following is an edited transcript of an online chat event conducted by PhilMusic.Com with the Eraserheads on June 28, 1997. The Internet facilities were provided by the ISP NetAsia (Target Asia Network Corp) at their offices in Makati.

Joining us at the Netasia offices on a Saturday afternoon were the Eraserheads, represented by Ely Buendia, Buddy Zabala, and Raimund Marasigan. Lead guitarist Marcus Adoro wasn't around, having begged off from attending the session (which meant that the other Eheads would be talking about him all throughout the chat.) Joining the "Eheads" at the chat session were their business manager Earnest Mangulabnan, and personal manager Jessica Zafra (who logged into the chatroom under the pseudonym "Mr. Stripes").

PhilMusic Chatroom moderators "Jazzbo" and "Samantha" were also lurking about online.

As the session starts, the Eraserheads have just come into cyberspace fresh from a TV guesting. Around 50 or so Eraserhead buffs from all over the world have gathered online to ask them questions or just to watch the chat proceedings. There are fans from the US, Canada, Australia, Southeast Asia and the Philippines impatiently waiting for the sessions to start, having waited for over an hour for the Eheads to make their appearance.

And then it starts.

What follows are excerpts, which manage to preserve the Eheads' off-the-cuff and rather oddball humor, which is an integral part of the band's personality. If they ever decide to hang up their instruments, they can always get a job writing material for some bizarre TV sitcom... possibly about a combo on the run.

Session Start: Sat Jun 28 15:52:12 1997

<Moderator> Ladies & Gentlemen, Welcome to the #PhilMusic Chatroom! We're here cybercasting live from the offices of our Chat Sponsor NETASIA (<http://www.netasia.net>), in Makati City, Philippines!

<Moderator> Today's guests are ERASERHEADS - surely a band that needs no introduction, being one of the biggest selling music artists in the Philippines. The Eheads have released four albums ("Ultraelectromagneticpop", "Circus", "Cutterpillow", and "Fruitcake") and have sold well over a million units.

<Moderator> Their latest release, is an EP entitled "Bananatype" on BMG Records Pilipinas and their latest single is "Harana". You can preview the new single and read the EP liner notes over the Internet in RealAudio format at "Eraserheads sa PhilMusic" at <http://philmusic.com/eraserheads>. A fifth album is scheduled to be released this year.

<Moderator> This chat event by the way is a MODERATED chat session. As such, users won't be able to talk to the band members directly. However, everyone online is encouraged to send in their questions! To send your questions, please send the moderator a private message and this will then be posed to the ERASERHEADS for them to answer online.
